CANAPÉS CONVERTIBLES

A close-up, high-angle photograph of a dark grey, textured fabric sofa. The image focuses on the corner and backrest areas, showing the plush cushions and the precise stitching that defines the sofa's structure. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the fabric and the depth of the shadows in the folds.

A collage of various materials including wood, fabric, and paper. The background is a light-colored wood grain. Overlaid on this are several rectangular and irregular pieces of material: a dark grey/black textured square in the top left; a dark blue cylindrical object in the top center; a yellow cylindrical object below it; a dark grey rectangular block in the center; a light-colored wood grain strip to the right of the grey block; a dark blue textured fabric strip in the bottom right; and several pieces of reddish-brown textured fabric at the bottom. The overall composition is abstract and artistic, showcasing different textures and colors.
